DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment and remarks filed 8/29/05 are acknowledged. In view of the amendments, in particular, the deletion of the terms "equivalents" and "derivatives", only the following rejections remain.

2. Upon further consideration, Claims 15, 37, and 38 are rejoined.

Claims 19-29 and 39-40 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claims 15-18, 37, and 38 read on the elected invention and are being acted upon.

3. Claims 15, 37, and 38 are objected to as depending from canceled Claim 8.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 16-18 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention, specifically:

As set forth previously, In Claim 16, the recitation of a method of "assaying activity comprising ... determining reactivity", now "measuring the reactivity", comprises a circular method comprising no actual steps for which the metes and bounds of the claims cannot be established. Also note that "reactivity" is not defined in the specification.

6. Claims 16-18 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP 2172.01. As set forth previously, Claim 16 recites a method for "assaying activity comprising ... determining reactivity", now "measuring the reactivity". The omitted steps comprise some sort of active method steps that would result in said assaying. As none of the claims comprise any actual method steps, it is unclear precisely what is actually encompassed by the claimed method.

Applicant's arguments, filed 8/29/05, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that while reactivity is not literally defined in the specification, the skilled artisan would understand that the term to mean immunoreactive or reacting immunologically.

Applicant's argument is not consistent with the specification. There is no disclosure therein of limiting the claimed invention to immunoreactivity. Regardless, at page 4 of the specification the "reacting with T cells and modifying T cell function" is disclosed as including (but not limited to) "T cell activation, T cell inactivation, and/or T cell death", does not comprise a specific method. Said activation, inactivation, or death could conceivably be measured by specific assays, however, no specific methods of assay are claimed. Applicant is advised that claims reciting specific, disclosed methods of assay might obviate the instant rejection.

7. The following is a new ground of rejection necessitated by Applicant's amendment.

8. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

9. Claims 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as the specification does not contain a written description of the claimed invention, in that the disclosure does not reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s) had possession of the claimed invention at the time the application was filed. This is a new matter rejection.

The specification and the claims as originally filed do not provide support for the invention as now claimed, specifically, "A method for measuring the reactivity of a subject to IDDM autoantigen".

Applicant cites pages 9-10 of the specification in support of the new method.

A review of pages 9 and 10 show that the specification discloses measuring reactivity only in specific ways (second paragraph of page 9) or by assay (second paragraph of page 10). The broader method of generically measuring the reactivity of a subject to IDDM autoantigen (as is now claimed) is not disclosed.

Art Unit: 1644

10. No claim is allowed.

11. Applicant's amendment or action necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

12. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dr. Gerald Ewoldt whose telephone number is (571) 272-0843.
